Dear Fiber Producers,

Welcome back from the year that wasn't. Well, it wasn't normal or nearly as fun!

We missed seeing and handling all the beautiful fleeces and seeing you all in person. Now we realize even more that all the hard work of organizing and running the Endless Mountains Fiber Festival is definitely worth it!

We will prepare packets for each producer after you check in the fleeces. This year, bring the following to the Sheep Barn

- Your carefully sorted/skirted fleeces bagged in sturdy, clear, plastic bags.
- Your Farm Registration Form (we will have extra copies on hand if you need one)
- Entry Fee (cash or check). (Note above that vendors and exhibitors pay a reduced fee.)

After pre-registration is completed, we will give you one triplicate form per fleece you are registering to be filled in by you from the information on your completed "Farm Registration Form"; on the website or by emailing Judy Leece at leecesfleeces@yahoo.com

- This is the 4th year of our Fleece Show for shepherds who wish their fleeces be judged. (Not all fleeces need to be entered in the show for judging, but all fleeces entered to be judged must be priced for sale.) The judging will occur after registration closes on Saturday 9:30am but before the Fleece Sale opens (1pm). The winning fleeces entered for judging will be awarded ribbons and premium money, the producers will receive the judges' comments.
- Accepted fleeces will be categorized as Wool (sheep) Fine, Medium, Longwool, Double-Coated (typical of more ancient breeds). Additional classes include Llama, Alpaca, Mohair and Angora (rabbit) classes. For judging, if ten fleeces of the same breed of sheep are entered, that breed will be a class of its own.

Please contact Judy Leece via email with questions regarding the Fleece Show & Sale at leecesfleeces@yahoo.com.
